

6300 Delmar Boulevard

St. Louis, Missouri
2010

PROJECT OVERVIEW

This proposed design project will add a much desired retail component to the east entrance of the Loop commercial district. Visually the 6400 square feet building fills a hole in the Delmar streetscape and is designed to accommodate up to six stores, further contributing to the unique shopping and entertainment district.

view from street

retail

saint louis

DESIGN ALLIANCE

architects